

6516207534.txt

I believe that this would be a true restriction of our rights and a violation of the antitrust which your agency so strongly defends. Restricting alternative delivery services does a disservice to all. I believe that it is important for this service to continue so long as the service is not rebroadcasting another provider without remuneration.